WEBB'S COMPOUND OF

PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS.

THE Proprietor has succeeded from directions of Professor Stowe, in combining the Oil and Lime so perfectly that the taste of the Oil, which is so nauseous to persons generally, is entirely overcome, and it can be taken by the most delicate females with pleasure. And as regards the benefit of this article over the plain oil, the following case, by Prof. Stowe, is sufficient to convince the most skeptical. The young lady was twenty-four years of age.

"Her disease was one of chronic phthisic which had been expected to terminate in the course of a few months, fatally. The upper part of both her lungs were filled with tubercles; and in some places were beginning to soften. The case was evidently a bad one. The treatment of Cod Liver Oil was at first used, but without marked improvement. The Phosphate of Lime was then administered with the oil, and the result, as in the case of many others, was soon apparent. The patient was rapidly getting well."

CAUTION.—On account of the great reputation of this Compound for all Lung complaints, the subscriber would caution the afflicted against using an article except that manufactured by him, as he has the only receipt in the United States for combining the pure Oil with lime in a proper manner. Therefore as you value your health, purchase none except that manufactured by Self Acquired Fame!

DR. JOHNSON'S.

AMERICAN ANODYNE LINIMENT.

For Internal and External Use.

THIS wonderful Medicine, hot-withstanding it has never had the advantage of newspaper publicity, has yet acquired a higher and more extensive popularity than any other similar compound in the world. It is entirely of vegetable extract, perfectly safe to be administered even to the most delicate child, and alike astonishing and satisfactory in its effects upon man or beast. To those unacquainted with this invaluable medicine we say, Give it a fair trial, and we will promise you a radical cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Spitting of Blood, and all Lung Complaints; Chronic Diarrhœa, and Dysentery; in all of which cases it should be used internally. The effects of its external application in cases of Rheumatism, Spina, Diseases, Sprains, Chapped Hands, Bruises, Burns, and all descriptions of wounds, are magical. Persons troubled with Cramp in the Stomach, Side, or Bowels, Sore Throat, Piles, &c., by a combined internal and external application of this Anodyne cannot fail of certain and speedy cure. The proprietor can produce volumes of testimonials in its favor, but prefers to let it carry its own recommendations, as it has done for forty years past. We ask no man to use it after an unsatisfactory trial. In the composition it unites several of the most penetrating and healing specifics known to the materia medica.—The inventor of this article was in the constant and successful practice of medicine for more than twenty years.

This is to certify that having been troubled for a number of years with a distressing cough and bleeding at the lungs, and receiving no benefit from medical aid, in 1848 I was in all appearance in the last stage of consumption. My legs swelled so that I was unable to stand. I procured a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment and by using three bottles, my leg was reduced and strengthened, and for a description of which I have been at a loss about as well as the other. I consider myself indebted to the use of your Liniment, (though the timely gift of a bottle of it to me by a friend) for the use of my leg, and would say to others who may need help in this way, try it, and no doubt you will be cured.

HARRY'S

MATRIAT

H. M.

FOR RESTORING, PRESERVING AND BEAUTIFYING

THE HAIR.

THIS preparation is an effectual remedy for Baldness, or Falling Off of the Hair. It prevents the same entirely eradicates Scurf and Dandruff; it will cause the Roots of the Hair, whereas it to grow, and surely gives it a Rich, Dark, Soft and Glossy appearance, and prevents it turning Grey. The Matriat Balm is a purely Vegetable compound, scientifically and chemically combined, and warranted to contain none of those deleterious ingredients which prove so injurious to the Hair. It acts directly upon the Skin, cleansing and invigorating it from all unhealthy secretions thereby causing it and preventing the accumulation of Scurf, Dandruff, and other impurities which so frequently cause premature decay, and loss of the Hair.

The Matriat Balm is especially adapted to Ladies' use, and those who have tried the various cosmetic mixtures, with no benefit, will at once discover the agreeable and beneficial effects produced by this pure and delicate preparation—Instead of Matting and Tangling the Hair, (which is more or less pulled out in the processes of combing) it leaves it free and clean; promotes a natural moisture, and imparts a beautiful dark and glossy appearance. Try it once, and you will be convinced of its superiority over all other Compounds for the Hair.

Much more might be said in favor of this invaluable Compound, but it is deemed unnecessary, as the proprietor feels confident that ONE TRIAL will convince the most incredulous of its rare and manifold virtues. Therefore,

If you have lost your hair and wish to restore it,

If you are losing your hair and wish to preserve it,

If you are troubled with Dandruff and wish to remove it,

If you have any Humor of the Scalp and wish to cure it,

If you are troubled with Nervous Headache and wish to cure it,

If you have any Hair eaters at the Roots of the hair, and wish to destroy them,

If you have Harsh, Dry, and Wiry Hair, and wish it to become Soft, Pliable and Beautiful as Silk; and if you wish to preserve Rich, Graceful, and Luxuriant Tresses to the latest period of life,

PATENT SELF HEATING

SMOOTHING IRON!

MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern implements; but females have been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them, in a very great degree, from the excessive and fatiguing labor of Ironing, besides being a great saving of time and expense. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor, and despatch; one cent's worth of fery charcoal supplies fuel for a whole days' constant ironing. Hard wood coal from the stove will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Hatters' and Tailors' Irons are constructed upon the same principle, and possess equal superiority.

MOLECULES AND MASSES.

"Take care of the pence, and the pounds will take care of themselves," is a saying as old as any of Poor Richard's, if it is not actually one of them, and it is as valuable now as it was when it was first uttered. Most fortunes are slowly accumulated, and if men desire to be rich, the larger part of them, in order to be so, must be careful of their pennies.

When old Mr. Coutts, the celebrated banker of London,—father of the millionaire, Miss Burdett Coutts—died, it was said of him, that an old acquaintance and friend, whom he had not seen for years, once called upon him when on a visit to London, and was invited to dine with him. He found his mansion a palace; his table was furnished with vessels of silver and of gold; the viands numerous and choice; an army of servants were in attendance, and all the appointments were in the most princely style. On the day following the banquet, the gentleman called upon Mr. Coutts at his place of business, to close some business transactions, and in settling, it was found that it required two pence from the stranger to balance the account. He felt in his pocket, and remarked that he had not the money.

"Well," said Mr. Coutts, "the account cannot be settled without it."

"How is this?" said the gentleman, astonished, "you gave me a dinner yesterday, upon which you were lavish of expense, and to-day you higgle with me about two-pence!"

"Very true, sir," said he, "and it was by being so particular about the pence, that I was enabled to give you that dinner."

In his business transactions he had accustomed himself to be exact, and to this he attributed his success in life.

Napoleon the Great, when First Consul, endeavored to impress this principle upon the mind of Josephine, whom he imagined was inclined to be too careless in her business matters.

At one time, having concluded to be present with his wife, on some great occasion, accorded to the Duchess D'Abrantes, he said to Josephine—

"I desire you will be dazzling in jewelry, and richly dressed; do you hear?"

"Yes," replied she, "and then you find fault, perhaps fall into a passion; or you erase my warrants of payment from the margin of my bills."

"Certainly, my dear love, I sometimes cancel your warrants of payment, because you are occasionally so imposed upon, that I cannot take it upon my conscience to sanction such abuses; but it is not, therefore, inconsistent to recommend you to be magnificent on occasions of parade. One interest must be weighed against another, and I hold the balance, equitably, though strictly. Here, I will tell you a story, which will do wonders as a lesson, if you will but remember it. Listen too, you young giddy pates," beckoning to the Duchess and her young companions, "listen too, and profit by it."

"There lived at Marseilles a rich merchant, who received one morning, through the hands of a young man of good family and fortune, a letter strongly recommending him to his notice. The merchant, after having read the letter, instead of throwing it aside, tore off the blank side of the sheet, and placed it in a port folio carefully with similar papers, and placed the letter in another port folio. Having attended to this act of economy, he invited the young man to dine with him that very day. The gentleman, accustomed to a life of luxury, felt little inclination to dine with a man apparently so mean. He accepted the invitation, however, and promised to return by four o'clock. But as he descended the narrow counting house staircase, his mind rapidly reverted to the observations he had made upon that small gloomy room, with the two long offices which led to it, encumbered with dusty ledgers, and where a dozen young men were working in melancholy silence; he then repented of his folly in accepting the invitation. The duties of his toilet were discharged more for his own satisfaction than in compliment to the host who expected him; and he proceeded to the banker's house. On arriving as desired, to be conducted to the merchant's lady. A number of valets in rich liveries, led him across a small garden filled with rare plants, and after conducting him through several apartments sumptuously furnished, introduced him to a handsome drawing room, where he found the banker, who presented him to his wife, who was young, and pretty, and elegantly attired; and he himself was no longer the unattractive looking personage his guest had seen in the morning, while the manners and conversation of fifteen or twenty visitors who were assembled in the drawing room, led to the inference that this house was one of the most refined in the city. The viands were excellent, and the table was covered with an abundance of massy silver plate; in short, the young traveler was obliged mentally to admit, that he had never partaken of more delicate fare, or seen a greater display of magnificence: and he was more than ever confounded upon ascertaining from one of the persons near him, that the banker gave a similar entertainment twice a week. While coffee was serving he ruminated on all he had witnessed. The banker observing his fit of abstraction, soon succeeded in drawing him into conversation, in finding out the cause of his perplexity, and observed emphatically, 'You are too young to understand how masses are formed, the true and only power, whether composed of money, water, or men, it is all alike. A mass is an immense centre of motion, but it must be begun—it must be kept up. Young man, the little bits of paper which excited your derision this morning, are one among the many means I employ for attaining it.'

"I was much struck afterwards," says the Duchess, "by this idea of masses as the foundation of power, so characteristic of Napoleon's policy."

☞ The Steamer Governor took the Sabbath Schools of the Hammond Street and Central Churches, on an excursion to Long Island on Friday. The number of excursionists was about seven hundred, men, women and children.

They landed at the wharf on the easterly side of the Island, about one and a half miles below Turtle Head, and proceeded to a grove at a little distance, where they spent about three hours in a pic nic, and in amusing themselves in various ways.

On the return of the boat, she took a turn in Castine Harbor, to give the passengers an opportunity to see the beautiful town.

Howe's Brass Band was on board, and entertained the company with their fine music.

The Governor left here at noon, and returned about 9 o'clock, P. M., with a delighted company.

On her passage up, a meeting of the gentlemen on board was called, at which Rev. Dr. Pond was chosen chairman, and Charles Hayward secretary, when the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That our thanks are due, and are hereby given, to Howe's Brass Band, for their varied and excellent performances, on the excursion.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to Capt. Thomas Rogers, and the officers of the steamer Governor, for their constant attention, kindness, and aid, in rendering the occasion agreeable to us.

Take care of your Bees.

We are informed that the confectioners in this city are much annoyed by the honey bee. One of them informs us they are so troublesome that he is obliged to burn them. One season he destroyed in this way, he thinks, as many as three swarms. One of his neighbors, who keeps bees, in order to prevent their being so destroyed, by some process contrived to keep them at home. It may be a subject that other owners of bees will deem worthy of consideration, if they think it an object to preserve them.

☞ Queen Victoria's royal baby was christened the 28th day of June. The ceremony was performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury in the presence of a brilliant company. The font was placed on a fluted plinth of white and gold. The royal baby was arrayed in a Honiton lace dress over white satin, trimmed with lace and narrow white satin riband, cap of Honiton lace, and mantle of Honiton over white satin. The whole ceremony is described as being very magnificent.

Hoes. When we want a hoe, commend to us one from the factory of Mr. Joseph Penny, of East Eddington—or, as he is called in that precinct, Uncle Joe. He has done good service himself in the battles of his country, and now makes hoes, that will do good service in its fields. This we can affirm (of the hoes) from the trial of several, which were equal to any we have used.

Yacht Shagonet. Our harbor was visited by a beautiful craft bearing this name, from Salem, last week, with a company of eight young men who are on an excursion Eastward. They seemed to take a fancy to our goodly city, and whiled away the greater portion of the week here in a manner satisfactory to themselves, and we believe to that portion of the public with whom they came in contact.

Filling up the Harbor. It has been and is the practice of the steamers, to throw their cinders overboard into the harbor on nearing their docks. The consequence of this practice, if longer permitted, will be to render the river unnavigable. We are glad the Harbor Master is on the alert for the offenders, determined to commence prosecution if the practice is persisted in.

☞ An English Collier, the John & Mary, Williamson, master, seventy days from New Castle, is discharging coals at the steamboat wharf. She is a curiosity to Yankee landsmen, and we believe the same may be said of the crew. She is as nearly square as she can be and not be a scow, which accounts for her extraordinary passage.

☞ The Harbor Master desires us to say, that the care of the side walks does not belong to him; and that if the School Committee have any thing to do with them, they had better give them their attention.

☞ In a garden on Carroll street in this city, may be seen an apple tree with a fair supply of good sized fruit thereon, and also in full blossom, giving the promise of a second crop.

Hammond St. Church. The repairs upon this building are in such a state of forwardness as to indicate that it is destined to be an ornament to the city. We are told that the color of the building is to be light, and that it is to be covered with a coating of light sand.

Erratum. In our article in Saturday's paper, entitled "Evasion of the Maine Law," for "officers" in 20th line from the top read "offenders." It should read, "offenders are in a fair way of making their fortunes," &c.

Answers of the Candidates for Governor to the State Central Committee.

Portland, July 12, 1853.

Dear Sir:—We enclose with this note the proceedings of the State Temperance Convention, held in Portland on 6th and 7th inst.

By a resolution which was passed unanimously in that body, you will see that the State Central Committee were authorized and instructed, "to interrogate the several candidates for Governor, in regard to their opinions and positions in relation to the Maine Law."

We therefore respectfully request you to send us an answer to the following interrogatories:

1st. Ought the Maine Liquor Law in your judgment, to be repealed?

2d. If not, should this law be modified in any respects? if so, please state to us what provisions you think should be changed, and in what respects.

Respectfully our Ob't Serv'ts,

Benj. D. Peck,	Phillip Weaver.
Woodbury Davis,	J. J. Perry,
S. R. Leavitt,	A. S. Richmond,
George Downs,	H. M. Eaton,

George W. Bourne.

Belfast, July 14, 1853.

Gentlemen:—I am, in receipt of your note of the 12th inst, propounding the following interrogatories: "1. Ought the 'Maine Liquor Law,' in your judgment, to be repealed?" "2. If not, should the law be modified in any respects, and if so, what provisions should be changed and in what respects?"

Believing that the object of the law referred to is of the highest importance to the moral, social and political welfare of the people, and that its provisions are adequate to the accomplishment of that object, it ought not, in my judgment, to be repealed. I have no modifications to propose or recommend, and am not aware of any which should be made.

In my reply to a similar communication from a Committee of the State Temperance Convention held prior to the last gubernatorial canvass, I expressed my approbation of the leading and material provisions of the law as it then was. The additional Act passed at the last session of the legislature divested it of those features which were regarded by many objectionable as being in conflict with the Constitution. After so recent and thorough a revision, it is in my judgment the wiser course to legislate no further upon the subject until the law in its present form shall have had a full and fair trial, and time and experience made apparent whatever of imperfection, if any, there may be in its provisions.

Very respectfully yours,

Wm. G. Crosby.

Messrs. B. D. Peck and others, Committee.

Winthrop, July 14, 1853.

Messrs. B. D. Peck and others of Committee, &c.—Gentlemen: Your note of the 12th inst., was received last evening. In obedience to a vote of a late Temperance Convention you interrogate me "in regard to my opinions and position in relation to the Maine Law."

You will undoubtedly recollect that I was, a year ago, requested by the State Central Temperance Committee, to give my "views" on the then existing "Maine Law;" and that I gave them in somewhat extended detail. When I assured you, gentlemen, that the observations and experience of another year in regard to his subject, have confirmed me still more strongly in the belief, not only of the utility, but the necessity of such a law. I trust you will excuse me from reiterating the ideas then expressed.

You ask me, "1st. Ought the Maine Law, in your judgment, to be repealed?" "2d. If not, should this law be modified in any respects" and if so, request me to "state to you what provisions should be changed and in what respects."

In answer to your first query, permit me to say that, in my judgment, the Legislature of Maine could not do a deed more fatal to her moral interests,—more disastrous to her growing prosperity,—and, by consequence, more derogatory to her honor and reputation, than to repeal the act commonly called the "Maine Law."

My answer to your second query must be somewhat more general. The law in question has its defects. Several modifications might be suggested that would strengthen its prohibitory character and increase its stringency—such, for instance as repealing or striking out the clause in the 7th section relating to sale of cider,—also adding sections, authorizing the detention of persons found intoxicated until they disclose where they obtained the liquor that made them drunk,—forbidding the collection of rent by Landlords, who, knowing, allow their tenements to be used for "liquor shops," &c.

I however would not advise any change in the law at present. I believe it to be a prudent course to let time and use test, by practical action, the power and extent of the merits and demerits, the strong points and weak points of all our new laws, before we begin to modify and change them, and see no good reason why this particular statute should be an exception to such a rule. With sentiments of cordial regard, I remain, gentlemen,

Your Ob't Serv't,

E. Holmes.

Mr Pilsbury's answer has not got along.

From the Japan Squadron. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times gives the following as the substance of despatches received by the Navy Department from Commodore Perry, dated Macao, April 27th:—

"The commodore gives not the slightest intimation that Minister Marshall had up to that interfered in the Chinese disturbance. On the requisition of Mr. Marshall, the steamer Susquehanna had gone to Shanghae an event which had caused the Commodore no little embarrassment, as that vessel was designed for the flag-ship of the squadron.

Commodore Perry proposed to sail for Shanghae in a day or two and would go, thence direct to Japan.—He does not expect to accomplish anything definite on the first trip to Japan but will embrace the opportunity to make such demonstrations and observations as will enable him to get an idea of the deposition and feeling of the Japanese with reference to the objects of his mission respecting which nothing is known in China. In the meantime the stars and stripes will be usefully employed in explorations and surveys, with a view to the establishment of depots and ports of refreshment for steamers and other vessels running between California and China. The squadron will probably return to Macao, from the first visit to Japan, about October, and will repeat the visit next year.

It is understood that fleet-surgeon Edmund L. Dubarry will return to the United States very soon."

Bryant writes home that the Turks are rapidly improving in refinement and civilization. In proof of this he mentions that they get drunk, play at billiards, and take every advantage of the money market.

From The Hartford Daily Times of July 18.

EXTRAORDINARY TRIAL.

Our readers will recollect that we published, several weeks since, an article from the New Haven Palladium, relative to the recovery of stolen property by aid of a clairvoyant. On the 27th of April last, the sum of $1,700, with a gold watch, chain, and ring, was stolen from the house of Samuel B. Parmelee, in Wallingford. Application was made to Mary Rich, a clairvoyant, who resided in Durham. She is 13 years of age. Her father put her into the clairvoyant state in the presence of Mr. Parmelee, the loser, and a Dr. Simons. She said, while in the sleep, that an Irish girl, a servant in the family, had stolen the property, but had burnt the money and thrown the watch, chain and ring into the well, near the house of Mr. P. The well was searched, the watch, chain and ring found there, and traces of burnt paper were also found in the stove pipe and chimney. The girl was arrested, and confessed that she did steal the property and dispose of it as described.

The trial of this singular and interesting case—the first that ever took place in this State on the development of a clairvoyant—took place in New Haven last week. It attracted universal attention, the Court-room being filled by spectators for several days, during its progress. The accused employed Hon. Charles Chapman, of this city—so widely known as a distinguished criminal lawyer—to defend her. He was assisted by Mr. Foster, of New Haven. On the part of the State, Mr. Stoddard, of New Haven, the State's Attorney, and Mr. Ives, of Wallingford, appeared.

It appears from the evidence adduced on the trial, that Mr. Parmelee returned from New Haven to his home in Wallingford on the afternoon of the 27th of April. He testified that he counted his money ($1,700) and placed it in a bureau drawer, in which was also a gold watch worth $140, two gold chains and a gold ring. This servant girl came into the room and undoubtedly saw him count the money. The bureau containing this property was in a room adjoining the bedroom of Mr. Parmelee, and the door leading to it was left open when he went to bed. He retired at 9½ o'clock, and left a door unlocked to admit this girl, who had gone out. The house was in process of painting, and the windows were left slightly up, to keep them from sticking. In fifteen minutes after he went to bed, he heard the door below open and the girl (as he supposed) came in. She went up stairs—had on shoes; shortly came down without shoes, and went into the buttery. Then she went back to her room; he heard her there, but heard no more that night. She got up about 5½ o'clock next morning—the usual time. He soon after got up, and noticed that the desk and drawer were open. The book-case key was used to unlock the desk. He saw that the watch, money and jewelry were gone. There were marks apparently by hands on the fresh paint of the window, and he thought they were made from the inside. He went over to Samuel Peck's to consult about the matter.

The Court ruled that what the girl said in the clairvoyant state could not be received as evidence, if repeated by others.]

Mr. Parmelee continued his evidence. He said that he found the watch and jewelry in the well on the 29th of April; but he has never found the money. It belonged to him solely. He had not shown this money—intended to pay out $1,500 of it next morning. The painters were at work on the house the day before the theft, but they did not come the next day. He examined the well because Mary Rich, the clairvoyant, said the watch, &c., were there; found them as she said. Half a dozen persons advised him to go there; Dr. Simons, botanic physician, went with him; he had not conversed with the girl; he did not think a person could have gone out of the window without leaving more marks. A bench that was supposed to have been left the night before near the fence, some distance from the house, was found under one of the windows next morning.

Mrs Parmelee confirmed the statement of her husband in several particulars. She watched the girl closely after the theft, and requested her to stay at her father's the next night; she did so; she noticed also that the girl had used a camphene lamp in her room on the night of the theft, fluid half burnt out—a thing that she never did before. Before her husband returned from the clairvoyant's she (Mrs. Parmelee) suspected the girl, and the girl told her several times that she would tell her the truth about the matter. She asked also if the painters didn't steal the money.

A slip of paper such as is used by Banks in wrapping round packages of bills, was found near the house, with words on it—"Meriden Bank—$100." Among the packages stolen were $230 of Meriden Bank bills.

Mary Rich, the clairvoyant, was called upon. She testified that she knew nothing of the facts in issue—that she could not remember anything she had said when in the sleep. She knew only that Mr. Parmelee and Dr. Simons came, and that her father put her into the sleep.

Ebenezer H. Ives, who had been appointed guardian of the prisoner—she being an orphan, and 16 years of age—testified that the girl confessed to him in presence of the Sheriff that she did steal the money, and that she burned it because she was frightened, and that she threw the jewelry in the well. [Counsel for prisoner objected to his evidence, and bore hard on him, he being the protector of the girl; but the Court received the evidence.]

Leander Parmelee testified that he charged this girl with the theft on the 28th of April. He examined her trunk but found nothing. On the 29th told her the watch was probably in the well, and when it was recovered showed it to her. She was much agitated. He then told her that he believed she knew where the money was, and if it was destroyed and she could tell how, perhaps they could get it again from the Bank. After she had confessed to Mrs. Parmelee she also confessed to him, and said she felt better.

Ann Dagnan testified that threats were used to make the prisoner confess; that Miss Cook said she had a good will to box her ears if she didn't confess, &c. The prisoner declared she was not guilty, that she was innocent as a child unborn; but finally said she would do it to please Mrs. Parmelee, as she felt so bad about it.

The father of the Clairvoyant said that when he had put his daughter to sleep, he put Dr. Simons in clairvoyant communication with her, and he examined her in relation to the stolen property. But Dr. Simons was not produced as a witness, upon which the counsel commented with effect.

So far as the girl's confession was concerned, it appeared that she was strongly charged with the theft—the watch was shown her, but she solemnly declared she was innocent, and then, as she said, confessed to please Mrs. Parmelee—directly after asserting that she was as innocent as a child unborn, God being her judge.

The trial closed on Saturday. Mr. Chapman spoke two hours and a half, bearing sarcastically upon clairvoyance, and with frequent inquiries for "Dr. Simons," who managed the clairvoyant examination. He conducted the defense with great skill. The New Haven Courier, in declaring that "his whole speech was able, eloquent, and very ingenious." The other counsel acquitted themselves with ability.

After a consultation of 15 minutes the Jury returned a verdict of Not Guilty.

There were some exceedingly tight places in the evidence against the girl, but she would not have been in more ingenious hands. We do not personally know Mr. Chapman, but have heard him highly spoken of as a man of sterling ability; and as for Chapman, we all know he is much more than ordinarily successful in getting over the hard ones with his clients.

Working models of the celebrated Beardslee Planing machine, will be on exhibition for a short time at the Bangor House. Mechanics, lumber dealers, lumber dressers, and all interested, are invited to call, and witness its operation. This machine excels all others both in quantity and quality of work.

☞ Singer's Sewing Machines are now pronounced by prudent men as far preferable to a life Insurance, for they afford the means of getting a living while the head of the family lives, and increases rather than diminishes the chances of a family otherwise destitute, by the death of a protecting father or brother. No family should be without one. Mechanics who can use them in their daily trades can more than double their earnings by their use. [Mirror.

SEWING MACHINES

Secured by Two Distinct Patents!

THESE extraordinary Machines have had numerous diplomas and medals awarded to them, as the best sewing machines ever devised. They now form one of the most attractive features of the Great Exhibition at the Crystal Palace in New York.

The proprietors having perfected their great manufactory in New York, are now able to produce the Machines at a cheaper rate, and have determined to give the benefit to the public, by reducing the price $25. Hereafter these unrivalled Machines will be sold at either of our regular offices for $100 Cash, without deduction or discount.

Of the admirable qualities of these Machines for all the work of the Clothier, Tailor, Shoe Manufacturer, Saddler, Carriage Trimmer, Cap-Maker, and Corset Maker, it is unnecessary to speak—The character of the machines for these branches of business is established, and they are known and admitted to be the most perfect instruments for the purpose ever devised. The clear profit on each machine is from $500 to $1000 a year, depending on the fineness and difficulty of the work done.—We desire to call the particular attention of Shirt and Collar manufacturers to our machine for stitching fine linen and cotton goods. We can satisfy any person interested that no other machine has ever done or can do this kind of stitching perfectly. The price of the machine includes the necessary articles for using. When ordered, they are packed, complete for immediate use, and full printed directions for using are furnished.

Either of the Express companies, or merchants visiting the places where our offices are located, afford a convenient medium for purchasing machines.

Great Excitement! Among Carriage Makers,

THE subscribers have purchased the right to make use and sell

for the Counties of Penobscot, Piscataquis, Waldo, Hancock Washington and Aroostook. The advantages of the above Coupling over the old method of connecting the main part of the Carriage with the front part is such that it must come into general use when it is properly understood. High forward wheels can be used, and we get rid of the all mirrors, as the wheels do not strike the body, and the carriage turns in a very small compass, the hind wheels not describing more than 4 to 6 feet circle. It is perfectly simple, and not so liable to get out of order as the old method. Those who have used the above are fully satisfied of its utility, as certificates below show. It can be attached to old carriages at a small expense, and we are prepared to sell the right for shops, towns, and would sell a part of the above named Counties, at such a rate that any smart man with a small capital could realize a great profit from the sale of the above. Any person wishing information will receive immediate attention at our place of business, or by dropping us a line by mail post-paid.

We have leave to refer to Messrs I. B. Norcross, Chase & Littlefield, and C S Coe, Esq., who are using the same. D W MORRILL & CO

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S

PEPSIN

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR

GASTRIC JUICE

Prepared from RENNET, at the famous STOMACH OF BROOK after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa

DIGESTION is the chief element, in fact the beginning of vegetable life—the salvation of Food, the Principle of Digesting, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the fresh Stomach of the Ox, thus forming a TRUE ARTIFICIAL FLUID, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its chemical powers and flavor, being a complete and perfect substitute for it

This is NATURE'S OWN REMEDY for an unhealthy Stomach No article of food can equal its curative powers. It contains no ALCOHOL, BITTERS, LIQUORS OR DISTILLATIONS It is extremely agreeable to the taste, and may be taken by the most feeble patients who cannot drink a water cracker without nauseating them Beware of DRUGGED IMITATIONS Pepsin is NOT A DRUG.

Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin infused in water, will digest or dissolve five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours out of the stomach

TESTIMONY AND EVIDENCE

The Scientific Evidence upon which this remedy is based is the highest degree Curious and Remarkable

Will on the Acetic Acid as a Re-agent in Organic Analysis, giving a list of Solvents of Soluble Substances, from Liebig's Animal Chemistry, Dr Combe's Physiology of Digestion, Dr Pereira on Food and Diet, Dr John W Draper, of New York, Dr Dunglison's Human Physiology, Prof Silliman's Chemistry, Prof Carpenter's Physiology &c., together with reports of cures from all parts of the United states.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, in the Case of Monsieur Bourey, Physical Lassitude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or prudishness of the passion in riper years, and in fact in the most miserable prostration of the nervous system, has induced many to call for a remedy for the above complaints It stands unrivalled and alone There is no other certain remedy, for any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested and its virtues proclaimed by the highest talent of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe as well as by eminent Physicians in these states It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD and MIND COMPLAINTS; the mental phrase so long sought for and never before found, the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES It will remove all nervous affections, Depression Excitement, insanity to study or business, loss of MEMORY CONFUSION, thoughts of Self Destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses or evil practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions &c., were incurable This however is not the case DR MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has, and is constantly curing these cases and relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show

Dr. Wood kind of the Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes "I found his patients being cured by using this cordial, than by any one plan or remedy I have ever seen since he commenced to use it Such a success is unparalleled in three cases in the hospital, but they were not effected in the full strength I prescribed the usual medicine and its full strength I prescribed the usual medicine and it had no effect In the one instance he purchased some of your cordial which had another effect, in the other case no other medicine would I shall ever recommend where I have an opportunity occur "

The name of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are great and such as to leave the public opinion of certain cases of disease out of the question and the proprietor could produce chest of the first physicians in the country to show that the great reputation it has obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and many times unparalleled virtues By all diligence to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation and it is equally potent in many diseases for which it is recommended

have and in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints It has in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been rendered and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high profession and character

THE COMMON EXPRESSION

Of those who have used this Extract is—I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous ones and to my merit having tried various medicines without deriving any benefit I had been given up by the faculty as incurable, but from the use of your Cordial I had no faith whatever of its benefit I did but I kept at it, and by the time I had consumed seven bottles I took with care me to my astonishment was restored to perfect health

An other says—I had consulted several distinguished physicians in Boston and I could not be cured other physicians say that I could not be cured other than I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial I must say it completely cured me

Another says—I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had why in fact I had heard of it before It would have saved me much expense, besides years of misery and bodily suffering

CAUTION—Ask for Dr Morse's Cordial and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence have and properly have brought into the market It will not hurt the most delicate female but do good In short of all other Cordials, &c (and try only this)

NOTICE Persons conscious of physical inability from causes above named may confidentially address D Morse Physician or by letter (post paid) at his office 26 Hanover street Boston The necessary advice and remedies for perfect restoration will then be immediately forwarded to the writer's address

NEVER FAILING REMEDY!

Holloway's Ointment

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING

Copy of a Letter from Mr Richardson Chemist, Liverpool dated August 20, 1852

To Professor HOLLOWAY

Dear Sir—I am enabled to forward you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer About ten years ago, Mr W Cummins, of Saltney Street in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries, he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip which so completely crippled him that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years, recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limbs and enabled him to dispense with his crutches so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor (Signed) J THOMPSON

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A BREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED

Copy of a Letter from Mr Hard Draper of Keady, near Gambles' dated March 1st 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY

Sir—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless At length I tried your Ointment and Pills and without exaggeration, the effect was miracu ous for by persevering in their use all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines she would have been saved also I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer (Signed) J HIRD Draper

Copy of a Letter from Messrs Walker and Co, Chemists, Bath

To Professor HOLLOWAY

Dear Sir—Among the numerous cures effected by the sale of your valuable medicines in this neighborhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the village of Preston, about five miles from this city She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly these increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies, her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to get where in their use, until she received a perfect cure We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person she being above 70 years of age We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter

A private in the Bath Police Force also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbut affection in the face, after all other means had failed He states that it was entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise
